SECTION 1. Section 4 of Chapter 563 of the Acts of 1903, as amended by any other acts amendatory thereto, is amended by deleting the section in its entirety and by substituting instead the following:

Section 4. Be it further enacted, That the duties of Mayor are to wit: It shall be the duty of the Mayor to preside at all meetings of the board of mayor and aldermen, to make such suggestions and give such instructions with reference to the action of such board as in his judgment will be most conducive to the interests of the town. He shall by written communication, lay before the board any information needed, and recommend such measures as he may deem expedient. He may call special meetings of the board, and when called he shall state the reason for convening them by message, and the action of the board shall be limited to said matter and that only. He shall make appointments to boards and commissions as authorized by law. He shall have the authority to countersign all checks and drafts drawn upon the treasury by the treasurer and shall sign all contracts which require his signature by law. He shall have the veto power over any action of the board, giving his reasons therefore in writing, but the board may, by a three-fifths (3/5) affirmative vote of the entire board, pass the same over his veto; or if he fails to return the same on or before the next regular meeting of the board, he shall be deemed to have approved the same, and the same shall become a law without further action of the board, and every law, ordinance, resolution or vote, except on question of adjournment, shall require the approval of the Mayor before it shall have effect, except as above provided.

SECTION 2. Chapter 563 of the Acts of 1903, as amended by any other acts amendatory thereto, is amended by inserting the following language as a new Section 5, by designating the current Section 5 as Section 6 and by renumbering subsequent sections accordingly:

In the temporary absence or disability of the city administrator, the city administrator shall appoint another city employee who shall serve as acting city administrator. If and when the city administrator's absence exceeds thirty (30) consecutive days, the board of mayor and aldermen shall have the right to appoint another department head or another city employee as the acting city administrator.

The city administrator shall be the chief administrative officer of the town. The city administrator shall be responsible to the board of mayor and aldermen for the administration of all town affairs placed in his charge by or under this charter. The city administrator shall have the following duties:

- (1) To administer the business of the town and execute all contracts except as otherwise provided by this charter or by law;

(10) To keep the board of mayor and aldermen fully advised as to the financial condition and future needs of the town and make such recommendations to the board of mayor and aldermen concerning the affairs of the town as he deems desirable.

The board of mayor and aldermen and its members shall deal with the administrative services of the town only through the city administrator, except for the purpose of inquiry, and neither the board of mayor and aldermen nor any member thereof shall give orders or instructions to any subordinates of the city administrator. The city administrator shall take instructions from the board of mayor and aldermen when they are sitting in a duly convened meeting of the board of mayor and aldermen.

The city administrator shall not be removed from office, other than for misconduct in office, during or within a period of thirty (30) days following the beginning of a new term of office next succeeding any general municipal election held in the town, at which election a new member of the board of mayor and aldermen is elected, or when a new member is appointed. The purpose of this provision is to allow any newly-elected or appointed member of the board of mayor and aldermen to observe the actions and ability of the city administrator in the performance of the powers and duties of his office. After the expiration of the thirty (30) day period aforementioned, the city administrator may be removed by a majority vote of the board of mayor and aldermen.
