HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 2

By Representatives Faison, Alexander, Armstrong, Harry Brooks, Kevin Brooks, Butt, Calfee, Camper, Dale Carr, Joe Carr, Carter, Casada, Coley, Cooper, Curtiss, Dean, John DeBerry, Lois DeBerry, Dennis, Doss, Dunn, Durham, Eldridge, Evans, Farmer, Favors, Fitzhugh, Floyd, Forgety, Gilmore, Goins, Halford, Hall, Hardaway, Harrison, Hawk, Haynes, Matthew Hill, Timothy Hill, Holt, Jernigan, Curtis Johnson, Gloria Johnson, Jones, Kane, Keisling, Lamberth, Littleton, Lollar, Love, Lundberg, Lynn, Marsh, Matheny, Matlock, McCormick, McDaniel, McManus, Miller, Mitchell, Moody, Odom, Parkinson, Pitts, Pody, Powell, Powers, Ragan, Ramsey, Rich, Roach, Rogers, Sanderson, Sargent, Sexton, Shaw, Shepard, Shipley, Sparks, Spivey, Stewart, Swann, Tidwell, Todd, Towns, Travis, Johnnie Turner, Mike Turner, Van Huss, Watson, Weaver, Dawn White, Mark White, Kent Williams, Ryan Williams, Windle, Wirgau, Womick and Madam Speaker Harwell

Senator McNally

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of the children and adults of Newtown, Connecticut, whose lives were lost in the Sandy Hook Elementary School massacre.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the horrendous and tragic events at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut, on the fourteenth day of December in 2012; and

WHEREAS, on that day and in that place, evil became carnate in the form of a deranged, lethal person who perpetrated a mass shooting in classrooms and hallways of this town's elementary school, Sandy Hook Elementary, which was, indeed, a bastion of learning, nurturance, and cognitive development for Newtown's youngest school-age children; and

WHEREAS, when that reign of carnage ceased, so, too, had the lives of twenty innocent first grade children and six women that included the principal and five teachers, each having fallen as prey into the den of iniquity that enveloped the mind, body, and soul of the killer in that time; and

WHEREAS, of all who escaped death's quest on that dark day, each child and adult has forever been scarred by invisible trauma of unfathomable proportions, and they shall ever be haunted by that proximate devilry which rampaged in their midst during the endless minutes of that horror; and

WHEREAS, the selfless and dedicated service of first responders and law enforcement officials coupled with the desperate efforts of school personnel to manage the mayhem in the immediate aftermath of such human destruction, and even as the investigation and recovery continues, is nothing less than truly remarkable, bringing comfort to a people and their community as they experience grief that is inconsolable and emotional pain that cannot be assuaged; and

WHEREAS, in this august country where the States of our republic are united, the good and deeply sorrowed people of Newtown and all of Connecticut have been tightly embraced by sympathy and support of Americans; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this legislative body should pause to consider events of Newtown, respectfully and reverently paying homage to the lives lost; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor the memory of the twenty children who died in the massacre at Sandy Hook Elementary School in Newtown, Connecticut, reflecting fondly upon their brief yet treasured lives.

HJR 2

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we honor the memory of the principal and five teachers who died as they valiantly performed their duties that fateful day.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of each individual who departed this earth from within the walls of Sandy Hook Elementary School on December 14, 2012.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
