WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should honor and recognize those exceptional farming families who, through their dedication to the ancient and esteemed traditions of agriculture, have made significant contributions to their respective communities and to this State; and

WHEREAS, the Walker family certainly ranks among those estimable Tennessee farming families; Walker Farm, owned and operated by the family since 1900, has been designated a Tennessee Century Farm in recognition of its long and illustrious history; and

WHEREAS, Walker Farm was founded in 1900 by William Thomas Walker and his wife, Harriet Beech Walker; Mr. and Mrs. Walker produced grains, fruits, horses, mules, swine, cattle, and sheep on the 180-acre farm; they also owned and operated a grist mill and saw mill for making lumber; and

WHEREAS, William and Harriet had ten children, and their son, William George Walker, was the member of the next generation to own the farm; he was married to Era Francis Overby Walker, and the couple had six children; and

WHEREAS, Joseph and Era continued to raise the same livestock, grains, and fruits; and
