(f) Appearance bond. Whenever any person is arrested for the violation of any city ordinance in the presence of a police officer, and no warrant has been issued or served, such person may execute an appearance bond in an amount not exceeding state authorized limits, and file same with a police desk sergeant, or may, in lieu of the execution of an appearance bond, deposit a sum not exceeding state authorized limits, with a police desk sergeant and be given a receipt for same, and, on the appearance of such person before the city court at the time specified in the receipt, such deposit shall be returned to that person. On the failure of such person to appear at the time specified, the amount so deposited shall be forfeited to the city and such person shall not be entitled to the return of any part thereof and it shall not be necessary to issue a scire facias; provided, that within two (2) days of the imposition of the forfeiture, the city judge shall have the power to set aside the conditional judgment imposing such forfeiture when it shall be made to appear that the failure of the accused to appear and defend such accused's suit was due to no fault or negligence of the accused. After the expiration of the two (2) days, there may be a final judgment imposing forfeiture.

(g) Disposition of fines. All fines imposed by the city judge for violations of city ordinances shall belong to and be paid into the treasury of the city.

(h) Collection of fines and cost. The city judge, in all cases heard or determined by such city judge for offenses against the corporate laws and ordinances, shall set and collect municipal court costs as adopted by ordinance, shall levy and collect the litigation tax in accordance with the provisions of Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 16-18-305, and, in addition, shall add thereto the state mandated privilege tax on litigation for city ordinance violations governing the use of a public parking space, as a tax on all such cases. The city judge shall certify to the chief of police for collection, all fines, costs, and forfeitures imposed by the city judge for offenses against the laws and ordinances of the city. Costs in favor of any person paid a fixed salary by the city shall belong to the city and be paid into its treasury. It is the duty of the city judge to collect and receipt for all fines imposed by the city judge, and the city judge shall render a monthly report to the board of commissioners of all costs and fines collected and of all assessed and uncollected.

It is unlawful for any other person or officer to collect or receipt for such fines, costs, and recoveries, but the city judge may authorize the chief of police to collect and receipt for fines and costs.

(i) Appeal from city judge's judgment. Any person dissatisfied with the judgment of the city judge in any case or cases heard and determined by the city judge, may, within ten (10) entire days thereafter, Sundays exclusive, appeal to the next circuit court of the county, upon giving bond with good and sufficient security as approved by the city judge for such person's appearance or the faithful prosecution of the appeal; provided, that in prosecutions for violations of the city ordinances, the bond shall not exceed bond amounts set forth in Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 16-18-307.

The finance director has custody of all records, papers, and vouchers relating to the fiscal affairs of the city, and the records in the city recorder's office shall show the financial operations and conditions, property, assets, claims, and liabilities of the city, all expenditures authorized, and all contracts in which the city is interested. The finance director shall require proper fiscal accounts, records, settlements, and reports to be kept, made, and rendered to the city manager, if one is appointed, by the several departments and officers of the city, including all deputies or employees of the city recorder's department charged with the collection or expenditures of money, and shall control and audit the same. Section 7.3. Approval of claims against the city.

(a) Except as otherwise provided by this charter or by law or ordinance, the finance director shall prescribe and regulate the manner of paying creditors, officers, and employees of the city. The finance director shall audit all payrolls, accounts, and claims against the city and certify thereon the balance as stated by the finance director; however, no payroll, account, or claim, or any part thereof, shall be audited against the city or paid unless authorized by law or ordinance and approved and certified by the city manager and the head of the department for which the indebtedness was incurred, and the amount required for payment of the same appropriated for that purpose by ordinance and in the treasury.

(b) Whenever any claim is presented to the city finance director, the finance director shall have power to require evidence that the amount claimed is justly due, and is in conformity to law and ordinance, and for that purpose may summon before such finance director any officer, agent, or employee of any department of the municipality, or any other person, and examine the officer, agent, or employee upon oath or affirmation relative thereto.

(c) The city manager, if one is appointed, finance director, and head of the department concerned, and their sureties, shall be liable to the municipality for all loss or damages sustained by the municipality by reason of the corrupt approval of any claim against the municipality.

Section 7.4. Issuance of warrants.

(a) Subject to the provisions of this charter, warrants shall be issued by the finance director.

(b) Each warrant shall specify the particular departmental fund against which it is drawn and shall be payable out of no other fund.

(c) Any officer or employee in the finance director's office may be designated by such finance director to draw warrants with the same effect as if signed by the finance director, such designation to be in writing, in duplicate, filed with the city manager. The city manager may make such designation if the finance director is absent or disabled and there is no one in the finance director's office designated to act. Any such designation may be revoked by the finance director while acting as such by filing the revocation in duplicate with the city manager and the treasury division.

Section 7.5. Certification of availability of funds to meet contract obligations. No contract, agreement, or other obligation involving the expenditure of money shall be entered into, nor shall any ordinance, resolution, or order for the expenditure of money be passed by the board of commissioners or be authorized by any officer of the city, unless the finance director shall first certify to the board or the proper officer, as the case may be, that the money required for such contract, agreement, obligation, or expenditure, is in the treasury or safely assured to be forthcoming and available in time to comply with, or meet such contract, agreement, obligation, or expenditure; and no contract, agreement, or other obligation involving the expenditure of money payable from the proceeds of bonds of the city shall be entered into until the issuance and sale of such bonds have been duly authorized in accordance with the provisions of this charter in reference to city bonds.

Section 7.6. Emergency expenditures. No contract liability shall be incurred without previous authority of law or ordinance, but the board of commissioners may, by ordinance, empower the proper officials to pay out money or incur contract liability for the city for the necessary preservation of the city's credit, or in other extreme emergency, under such restrictions as may be provided in the ordinance; provided, that any such liability shall mature not later than one (1) year from the date of its incurrence.

Section 7.7. Depositories of municipal funds. Depositories of the municipal funds shall be designated by ordinance. The board shall require any financial institution that becomes a depository of municipal funds to secure such funds by collateral in the same manner and under the same conditions as state deposits under Tennessee Code Annotated, title 9, chapter 4, parts 1 and 4, or as provided in a collateral pool created under Tennessee Code Annotated title 9, chapter 4, part 5.

Section 7.8. Fiscal forms. The finance director shall cause all forms used in connection with either the receipt or disbursement of city funds to be numbered consecutively, and shall account for all spoiled or unused forms.

Section 7.10. Annual operating budget–Publication–Budgetary comparison. The city manager, if one is appointed, shall, on or before May 15 of each year, submit to the board of commissioners an estimate of the expenditures and revenues of the city for the ensuing fiscal year. This estimate shall be compiled from detailed information obtained from the several departments on uniform blanks to be furnished by the city recorder. The board of commissioners shall adopt and publish the annual budget, and shall publish budgetary comparisons of the proposed budget with the prior year (actual) and the current year (estimated), which information shall include the following:

Section 7.11. Reversion of appropriations to general fund. At the end of each year, all unencumbered balances or appropriations in the treasury shall revert to the general fund and be subject to further appropriations. Such balances shall be considered unencumbered only when the finance director shall certify in writing that the purposes for which they were appropriated have been completely accomplished and that no further expenditure in connection with them is necessary.

Section 7.12. Taxes and assessments under department of finance. The assessment, levy, and collection of taxes and special assessments shall be in the charge of the department of finance, subject to the limitations found elsewhere in this charter.

Section 7.13. Property and privileges taxable. All property, real, personal, and mixed subject to state, county, and city taxes, and all privileges taxable by law, shall be taxed, and taxes thereon shall be collected by the city for municipal purposes as provided in this chapter.

Section 7.14. License taxes. License taxes may be imposed by ordinance upon any and all privileges, businesses, occupations, vocations, pursuits, or callings, or any class or classes thereof, now or hereafter subject to such taxation under the laws of Tennessee, and a separate license tax may be imposed for each place of business conducted or maintained by the same person, firm, or corporation.

The finance director shall enforce the collection of merchants' taxes and all other license taxes, and for that purpose have and exercise the powers of law vested in, and follow the procedure and methods prescribed for, county clerks.
