FIRST EXTRAORDINARY SESSION

HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 68

By Representative Powers

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of L.D. Monroe of Maynardville.

WHEREAS, the members of this legislative body were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of L.D. Monroe; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Monroe was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, L.D. Monroe served with acumen and alacrity with South Central Bell, where he earned the respect of his peers and superiors alike for the exemplary quality of his work; and

WHEREAS, he also worked for Union County Schools as a bus driver, where he was beloved by the students under his charge; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Monroe was an active and devout member of First Baptist Church of Maynardville, where he served as deacon; and

WHEREAS, L.D. Monroe was also deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, he was preceded in death by his parents, Walter and Vada Monroe; son, Kenny Monroe; and brother, C.P. Monroe; and

WHEREAS, left behind to cherish his memory are his wife, Mildred; daughter, Linda (Gary) Kitts; sons, Calvin Monroe and John R. (Denise) Monroe; daughter-in-law, Sue Monroe; grandchildren, Laura (Richard) Jones, Melanie (Chris) Maples, Bryan Monroe, and Keith (Misty) Monroe; sister, Evelyn Johnson; several great-grandchildren; and many extended family members; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Monroe leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this legislative body should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED ELEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the memory of L.D. Monroe, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family of Mr. Monroe.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
