HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 946

By Representative Richey

A RESOLUTION to honor Angie Davis on the occasion of retirement from education.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the members of this General Assembly should honor those outstanding citizens who have devoted their careers to providing the highest-quality education for Tennessee's students; and

WHEREAS, Angie Davis, a professional of the greatest dedication, ability, and integrity, is taking a much-deserved retirement after thirty-four years as an educator; and

WHEREAS, a positive influence on so many young lives, Mrs. Davis began her career at Madisonville Middle School despite mistaking an interview request for a practical joke by her future husband; and

WHEREAS, she spent twenty-three years in Monroe County, at first teaching sixth grade and fifth grade; she then became the first assistant principal at a Monroe County elementary school, serving Vonore Elementary and Madisonville Intermediate at various times but mostly at Madisonville Primary; and

WHEREAS, in 2013, Mrs. Davis returned home to Blount County to serve as a Title I interventionist at Middlesettlements, and except for one year of service as an interim principal, she has continued exercising her passion for her students and the Response To Intervention field there; and

WHEREAS, Angie Davis is pleased that family members have followed in her footsteps to serve as educators; her son, Jesse, is working on his master's degree to become a teacher, and her daughter-in-law, Ashley, who is married to her son, Eli, is a teacher at Carpenter's Elementary; and

WHEREAS, she and her husband, Jackie Davis, are looking forward to spending more time with their first grandchild, Emma Brooke, after Mrs. Davis retires; and

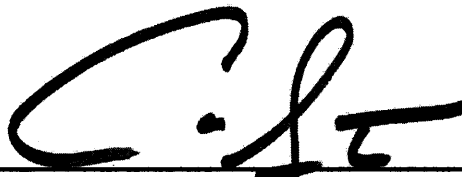

WHEREAS, Angie Davis is wholly committed to the highest ideals of public service and quality education for all, and she should be recognized on this special occasion; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRTEENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we honor Angie Davis on her incomparable thirty-four-year career as an educator in Monroe County and Blount County, commend her exceptional service to the students of Tennessee, salute her professional expertise and personal excellence, and extend to her our best wishes for every continued success and happiness during her retirement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy and upon proper request made to the appropriate clerk, the language appearing immediately following the State seal appear without House or Senate designation.
