

DISTRICT PUBLIC DEFENDERS CONFERENCE

211 Seventh Avenue North, Suite 320
Nashville, TN 37219-1821
(615) 741-5562

Jeffrey S. Henry, Executive Director

District public defenders fulfill the state's obligation under the U.S. Constitution to provide a lawyer to persons accused of crimes who can not afford a lawyer. District public defenders are attorneys elected in each judicial district who serve, as appointed by the courts, to represent indigent persons facing deprivation of liberty in criminal matters. The statewide system of public defenders was created by the General Assembly in 1989 as an alternative to the practice of court-appointed private attorneys.

The Office of the Executive Director serves as the central administrative office for each of the 31 district public defenders. The executive director is responsible for budgeting, payroll, purchasing, personnel, and administration of all fiscal matters pertaining to the operation of district public defender offices. Other duties include coordinating defense efforts of the various district public defenders, development of training programs, and maintaining liaison with various state government agencies.

The executive director is elected by the district public defenders for a four-year term and serves as a member of the Judicial Council and other judicial planning groups
