

THE STATE OF

TENNESSEE
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

PARDON

TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETINGS:

WHEREAS, in April of 2001, in the Criminal Court of Chester County, Tennessee, Audria Reeves was convicted of twelve counts of forgery up to $1,000 (case no. 01-89); and in April of 2001, in the Criminal Court of Madison County, Tennessee, Audria Reeves was convicted of aggravated burglary (case no. 1-237); and

WHEREAS, Tennessee's constitution and statutory law authorize the governor to grant executive clemency, including the power to issue pardons; and

WHEREAS, this case appears to me to be a proper one for the exercise of executive clemency for the following reasons:

Ms. Reeves has obtained her degree in substance abuse counseling from Southwest Tennessee Community College, as well as several certificates in treatment-related courses, and she has worked as a peer recovery specialist at a treatment center since 2018. Ms. Reeves founded a women's prison ministry, and she received an honorable discharge from the army in 2014. The Tennessee Board of Parole recommended pardoning Ms. Reeves.

NOW THEREFORE, I, Bill Lee, Governor of the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by Article III, Section 6 of the Tennessee Constitution and by the laws of the State of Tennessee, do hereby grant a pardon in favor of Ms. Audria Reeves, pardoning her for her 2001 convictions of forgery up to $1,000 and her 2001 conviction of aggravated burglary.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at Nashville, Tennessee on this 22nd day of December, 2022.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE
