0180-06-.02 ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS.

- (1) Order of proceedings for the hearing of contested cases when a Hearing Officer is hearing a case with a Commissioner.
 - (a) Hearing Officer may confer with the parties prior to a hearing to explain the order of proceedings, admissibility of evidence, number of witnesses and other matters.
 - (b) Hearing is called to order by the Hearing Officer.
 - (c) Hearing Officer introduces self and gives a very brief statement of the nature of the proceedings, including a statement of the Hearing Officer's role of making legal rulings.
 - (d) Hearing Officer introduces the members of the Department and states that the final decision in the proceeding will be made by the Department and that they are the sole judges of the facts, the Hearing Officer being excluded by law from deciding any question of fact when hearing cases with the Commissioner.
 - (e) Hearing Officer then calls the Respondent to ask if he or she is represented by counsel and if so, counsel is asked to introduce himself or herself. The Hearing Officer then introduces the Complainant's counsel and any other officials who may be present at the hearing.
 - (f) The Complainant reads the charges, as set out in the notice, with regard to the Respondent while giving references to the appropriate statutes and rules.
 - (g) The Respondent is asked how he or she pleads to the charges; if he or she admits the charges no further proof may be necessary, other than introduction of evidence pertaining to mitigation. If he or she denies the charges, the hearing proceeds.
 - (h) The Hearing Officer swears all the witnesses when they are called to testify.
 - (i) The Respondent is asked if he or she wishes to exclude the Complainant's witnesses from the hearing room so that no witness for the Complainant hears the other's testimony. The Complainant is given the same option with regard to the Respondent's witnesses.
 - (j) Any preliminary motions, stipulations, or agreed orders are entertained.
 - (k) Opening statements are allowed by both the Complainant and the Respondent.
 - (l) Moving party (usually the Complainant) calls his or her witnesses and questioning proceeds as follows:
 - 1. (Complainant) moving party questions.
 - 2. (Respondent) other party cross-examines.
 - 3. (Complainant) moving party redirects.
 - 4. (Respondent) other party re-cross-examines.
 - 5. Commissioner questions.
 - 6. Further questions by Respondent and Complainant.

(Questioning proceeds as long as is necessary to provide all pertinent testimony.)

- (m) Other party (usually the Respondent) calls his or her witnesses and questioning proceeds as follows:
 - 1. (Respondent) other party questions.
 - 2. (Complainant) moving party cross-examines.
 - 3. (Respondent) other party redirects.
 - 4. (Complainant) moving party re-cross-examines.
 - 5. Commissioner questions.
 - 6. Further questions by Respondent and Complainant.
(Questioning proceeds as long as necessary to provide all pertinent testimony.)
 - (n) Complainant and Respondent allowed to call appropriate rebuttal and rejoinder witnesses with examination proceeding as outlined above.
 - (o) Closing arguments are allowed to be presented by the Complainant and by the Respondent.
 - (p) Hearing Officer prepares to turn proceedings over to the Commissioner by charging the Commissioner as to burden of proof, requisites of the final order, voting procedures, and other pertinent matters; and reminding them that the Hearing Officer can take no part in any finding of fact although he can advise as to the legal sufficiency of the Commissioner's decision and other questions of law.
 - (q) The Hearing Officer then turns the proceedings over to the Commissioner for deliberation and decision.
 - (r) The Commissioner deliberates in public and reaches a decision which is communicated to the Respondent or takes the case under advisement and schedules public deliberations for a later time.
 - (s) The Hearing Officer hears any offers of excluded proof for the record.
- (2) The order of proceedings for the hearing of contested cases when a Hearing Officer or Administrative Law Judge is hearing the case alone is identical to the procedure outlined in paragraph (1) with the exception that the Commissioner is not present to participate. After the close of the hearing the parties are informed that a transcript or duplicate recording will be made of the testimony and that the Hearing Officer or Administrative Law Judge will write a proposed decision which will be served on the parties. The parties will be informed they will be allowed fourteen (14) days, or other period of time reached by agreement of the parties, to file exceptions to this decision. After the exception period expires the entire record will be submitted to the Agency for deliberations which will be in public and held pursuant to proper notice.
- (3) Subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this rule are intended to be merely a general outline as to the conduct of an administrative proceeding and it is not intended that a departure from the literal form or substance of this outline, in order to expedite or insure the fairness of proceedings, would be in violation of this rule.

0180-06-.06 PLEADINGS.

- (1) Notice. In all contested cases parties shall be afforded reasonable notice of an opportunity for hearing. If a hearing is requested or deemed advisable by the Commissioner the State shall serve upon the "Respondent" or "Complainant" a written notice or a copy thereof specifying the time, place, nature of the hearing and the right to be represented by counsel. In addition, the Complainant must detail the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held and a short and plain statement of the matters asserted. The notice or copy of the notice must be delivered by return receipt mail or served personally by the Commissioner or a person designated by the Commissioner on the party to be affected; or if the Respondent evades or attempts to evade service, by leaving the notice or a copy thereof at his dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of suitable age and discretion residing therein, whose name shall appear on the proof of service to return receipt card, or by delivering the notice or copy to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service on behalf of the individual served. The person making personal service on a party shall return a statement indicating the time and place of service. No hearing shall be held, unless otherwise specified by statute, until the expiration of thirty (30) days from service of the notice upon the Respondent.
- (2) Answer. The party may respond to the charges set out in the notice by filing a written answer with the Commissioner in which he may:
 - (a) Object to the notice upon the ground that it does not state acts or omissions upon which the Commissioner may proceed.
 - (b) Object to lack of jurisdiction over the subject matter.
 - (c) Object to lack of jurisdiction over the person.
 - (d) Object to insufficiency of the notice.
 - (e) Object to the insufficiency of service of the notice.
 - (f) Object to failure to join an indispensable party.
 - (g) Generally deny all the allegations contained in the notice or state that he is without knowledge to each and every allegation, both of which shall be deemed a general denial of all charges.
 - (h) Admit in part or deny in part allegations in the notice and may elaborate on or explain relevant issues of fact in a manner that will simplify the ultimate issues.
 - (i) Present new matter by way of defense.
 - (j) Make any defense relevant to the issues in the case.

(The answer shall be deemed a specific denial of all parts of the answer not expressly admitted.)

- (3) Parties may file a Pre-Hearing Motion to Dismiss or other motion of law prior to or at the hearing based on any defense in law. This motion will be addressed to the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge who will hear the case, and the Commissioner, Hearing Officer or Administrative Law Judge may convene a hearing on this motion giving all parties a reasonable opportunity to argue and present evidence relative to such motion.
- (4) The Commissioner, Hearing Office, or Administrative Law Judge may in his discretion set reasonable times for the filing of pre-hearing motions of law.
- (5) Place for Filing. All pleadings, motions and notices for pre-hearing conferences and hearings must be filed with the Administrative Procedures Division, William Snodgrass Tennessee Tower, 312 Eighth Avenue North, 8th Floor, Nashville, TN 37243, when heard by a Hearing Officer provided by the Secretary of State. Where the case is heard by the Commissioner, all pleadings, motions, and notices for pre-hearing conferences must be filed with the Commissioner of Financial Institutions, Tennessee Tower, 26th Floor, 312 Rosa L. Parks Avenue, Nashville, Tennessee 37243.
- (6) Motion for a More Definite Statement. Within two (2) weeks after service of a notice a party may file with the Commissioner, Hearing Officer or Administrative Law Judge a motion for a more definite statement, pursuant to T.C.A. § 4-5-108(3), on the grounds that the notice is so indefinite or uncertain that he cannot identify the transaction or prepare his defense. The Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge assigned to hear the case may continue the hearing until such time as a more definite statement is provided.
- (7) Amendment to Notice.
 - (a) Time. The Commissioner or Complainant may amend the notice within two (2) weeks from service of the notice before an answer is filed, unless the Respondent shows to the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge that undue prejudice will result from this amendment. Otherwise the Commissioner or Complainant may only amend the notice by written consent of the Respondent or by leave of the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge and leave shall be freely given when justice so requires. No amendment may introduce a new statutory violation without original service and running of times applicable to service of the original notice. The Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge may grant a continuance in consequence of an amendment to enforce this section.
 - (b) Amendments to Conform to the Evidence. When issues not raised by the notice are tried by express or implied consent of the parties, they shall be treated in all respects as if they had been raised in the pleadings. Such amendment of the notice as may be necessary to cause them to conform to the evidence and to raise these issues may be made upon motion of any party at any time; but failure to so amend does not affect the result of the determination of these issues. If evidence is objected to at the hearing on the ground that it is not within the issues in the notice, the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge may allow the notice to be amended unless the objecting party shows that the admission of such evidence would prejudice his defense. The Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge may grant a continuance to enable the objecting party to have reasonable notice to the amendments.

Authority: T.C.A. § 4-5-113(d) and Public Acts of 1983, Chapter 216. Administrative History: Original rule filed November 25, 1975; effective December 27, 1975. Amendment filed February 17, 1984; effective May 15, 1984. Administrative changes made to address on September 20, 2018.

0180-06-.07 DEFAULT AND UNCONTESTED PROCEEDINGS.

- (1) Default.
 - (a) The failure or refusal of a party (1) to timely appear at a hearing on the merits after due notice thereof, or (2) at the hearing to comply with any lawful order of the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge, necessary to maintain the orderly conduct of the hearing, is cause for holding such party to be in default and said order of default may thereupon be entered in the record.
 - (b) The Commissioner shall serve upon all parties written notice of entry of default for failure to appear and the defaulting party, no later than five days after such service of notice, may file a motion requesting that his default be set aside for good cause shown and stating the grounds relied upon. The Commissioner shall make such orders in regard to such motion as he in his absolute discretion may deem appropriate.
- (2) Effect of Entry of Default.
 - (a) Upon entry into the record of the default of the Complainant, the notice shall be denied.
 - (b) Upon entry into the record of the default of the Respondent, the matter shall be tried as uncontested as to such Respondent.
- (3) Uncontested Proceeding. When the matter is tried as uncontested, the Complainant has the burden of proof of affirmative allegations sufficient to state a prima facie case. The Commissioner may accept any other relevant evidence which he may deem desirable.

After commencement of the action, the deposition may be taken by the Respondent without leave of the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge. Depositions may be taken by the Complainant, after commencement of the action, without leave of the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge, except that leave, with or without notice, must be obtained if notice of the taking is served by the Complainant within five days after commencement of the action. The Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge may continue the hearing, upon motion of any party, to provide additional time for the taking of depositions. The attendance of witnesses may be compelled by the use of subpoena as provided in Rule 0180-06-.18.

It is not ground for objection that the testimony will be inadmissible at the hearing if the testimony sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.
- (3) Examination and Cross-examination. Examination and cross-examination of deponents may proceed as provided for in T.C.A. § 4-515 and as specified in these rules.
- (4) Use of Depositions:
 - (a) At the hearing, any part or all of the depositions, so far as admissible under T.C.A. § 4-5-109, may be used against any party for any purpose who was present or represented at the taking of the deposition or who had due notice thereof in accordance with Rule 26.04 of the Tennessee Rules of Civil Procedure.
 - (b) If only part of the deposition is offered in evidence by a party, an adverse party may require him to introduce all of it which is relevant to the part introduced, and any party may introduce any other parts.
 - (c) Substitution of parties does not affect the right to use depositions previously taken; and when any hearing proceedings has been dismissed and another proceeding involving the same subject matter is afterward brought between the same parties or their representatives or successors in interest, all depositions lawfully taken and duly filed in the former proceedings may be used in the latter as if originally taken thereof.
- (5) Objections to Admissibility. Subject to the provisions of Rules 0180-06-.11 and 0180-06-.14, objections may be made at the hearing to receiving in evidence any deposition or part thereof for any reason which would require the exclusion of the evidence if the witness were then present and testifying.
- (6) Effect of Taking or Using Depositions. At the hearing any party may rebut any relevant evidence contained in a deposition whether introduced by him or by any other party.

Authority: T.C.A. § 4-5-110(d). Administrative History: Original rule filed November 25, 1975; effective December 27, 1975. Amendment filed February 17, 1984; effective May 15, 1984.

Authority: T.C.A. § 4-5-110(d). Administrative History: Original rule filed November 25, 1975; effective December 27, 1975.

0180-06-.12 STIPULATIONS REGARDING THE TAKING OF DEPOSITIONS. If the parties so stipulate in writing, depositions may be taken before any person, at any time or place, upon any notice, and in any manner, and when so taken may be used as other depositions.

Authority: T.C.A. § 4-5-110(d). Administrative History: Original rule filed November 25, 1975; effective December 27, 1975.

0180-06-.13 DEPOSITIONS UPON ORAL EXAMINATION.

- (1) Notice of Examination: Time and Places. The party desiring to take the deposition of any person upon oral examination shall give notice in writing to every other party to the hearing proceedings. The notice shall be served on the other parties at least five (5) days beforehand when the deposition is to be taken in the county in which the hearing is pending. When the deposition is to be taken out of the county, notice at least seven (7) days before the date of the deposition shall be given. The notice shall state the time and place for taking the deposition and the name and address of each person to be examined, if known, and if the name is not known, a general description sufficient to identify him or the particular class or group to which he belongs. On motion of any party upon whom the notice is served, the Hearing Examiner or Commissioner may for cause shown enlarge or shorten the time.
- (2) Orders for the Protection of Parties and Deponents. After notice is served for taking a deposition by oral examination, upon motion seasonably made by any party or by the person to be examined and upon notice of good cause shown, which includes but is not limited to, grounds of irrelevancy, immateriality, undue delay or undue burden upon a party or deponent, privilege or confidentiality respecting the information sought, the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge may make an order that the deposition shall not be taken, or that it may be taken only at some designated place other than that stated in the notice, or that certain matters shall not be inquired into, or that the scope of the examination shall be limited to certain matters, or that the examination shall be held with no one present except the parties to the hearing and their officers or counsel, or that after being sealed the deposition shall be opened only by order of the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge, or that secret processes, developments or research need not be disclosed, or that the parties shall simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge may make any order which justice requires to protect the party or witness from annoyance, embarrassment or oppression.
- (3) Record of Examination; Oath; Objections. The officer before whom the deposition is to be taken shall put the witness on oath and shall personally, or by someone acting under his direction and in his presence, record the testimony of the witness. The testimony shall be taken stenographically or recorded (mechanically or electrically) and transcribed unless the parties agree otherwise. All objections made at the time of the examination to the qualifications of the officer taking the deposition, or to the manner of taking it, or to the evidence presented, or to the conduct of any party, and any other objection to the proceedings shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition. Evidence objected to shall be taken subject to objections made.

Upon demand of the objecting party or deponent, the taking of the deposition shall be suspended for the time necessary to make a motion for an order.

- (5) Submission to Witness; Change; Signing. When the testimony is fully transcribed the deposition shall be submitted to the witness for examination and shall be read to or by him, unless such examination and reading are waived by the witness and by the parties. Any changes in form or substance which the witness desires to make shall be entered upon the deposition by the officer with a statement of the reasons given by the witness for making them. The deposition shall then be signed by the witness, unless the parties by stipulation waive the signing or the witness is ill or cannot be found or refuses to sign. If the deposition is not signed by the witness, the officer shall sign it and state on the record the fact of the waiver or of the illness or absence of the witness or the fact of the refusal to sign together with the reason, if any, given therefor; and the deposition may be used as fully as though signed, unless on a motion to suppress under Rule 0180-06-.10, the Hearing Examiner or Commissioner holds that the reasons for the refusal to sign require rejection of the deposition in whole or in part.
- (6) Certification and Filing by Officer; Copies; Notice of Filing.
 - (a) The officer before whom the deposition is taken shall certify on the deposition that the witness was duly sworn by him and that the deposition is a true record of the testimony given by the witness. He shall then securely seal the deposition in an envelope endorsed with the title of the action and marked "Deposition of (here insert name of witness)" and shall promptly file it with the Administrative Procedures Division of the Department of State when it is to be heard by the Hearing Examiner or file it with the Commissioner when the hearing proceeding will take place before him.

- (2) As to Disqualification of the Hearing Officer Taking the Deposition. Objection to taking a deposition because of disqualification of the officer before whom it is to be taken is waived unless made before the taking of the deposition begins or as soon thereafter as the disqualification becomes known or could be discovered with reasonable diligence.
- (3) As to Taking of Deposition.
 - (a) Objections to the competency, relevancy, or materiality of testimony are not waived by failure to make them before or during the taking of the deposition, unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

- (b) Errors and irregularities occurring at the oral examination in the manner of taking the deposition, in the form of the questions or answers, in the oath or affirmation, or in the conduct of parties and errors of any kind which might be obviated, removed or cured if promptly presented, are waived unless reasonable objection thereto is made at the taking of the deposition.
- (4) As to Completion and Return of Deposition. Errors and irregularities in manner in which the testimony is transcribed or the deposition is prepared, signed, certified, sealed, endorsed, transmitted, filed, or otherwise dealt with by the officer under Rule 0180-06-.13 are waived unless a motion to suppress the deposition or some part thereof is made with reasonable promptness after such defect is, or with due diligence might have been, ascertained.

Interrogatories may be served after commencement of the action by the Respondent without leave of the Commissioner, Hearing Officer, or Administrative Law Judge.
