- The rule has been amended to add provisions regulating the use of unmanned aircraft on University property.

- (B) A citation to and brief description of any federal law or regulation or any state law or regulation mandating promulgation of such rule or establishing guidelines relevant thereto;

None.

- (C) Identification of persons, organizations, corporations or governmental entities most directly affected by this rule, and whether those persons, organizations, corporations or governmental entities urge adoption or rejection of this rule;

None.

- (E) An estimate of the probable increase or decrease in state and local government revenues and expenditures, if any, resulting from the promulgation of this rule, and assumptions and reasoning upon which the estimate is based.   - (c) a person who, in the good faith judgment of the University official issuing the Notice, poses an unreasonable threat to the health, safety, or welfare of a person(s) affiliated with the University while on University property;
  - (d) a person who, in the good faith judgment of the University official issuing the Notice, has engaged in conduct that substantially disrupts or interferes with University operations, events, or activities, or is likely to cause such a disruption or interference;
  - (e) a University student who has been suspended or expelled from the University in accordance with the University's student conduct rules, policies, or procedures, and the suspension or expulsion has not been lifted;
  - (f) a University employee who, in accordance with the University's employment policies and procedures, has been temporarily suspended, has been placed on administrative leave, or whose employment is being terminated; or
  - (g) a person who is a former employee or volunteer whose employment or volunteer status was terminated by the University for misconduct in accordance with University rules, policies, or procedures, or who resigned in lieu of termination.
- (4) A Notice must specify: the reason for the Notice; the geographical scope of the restriction; the duration of the restriction, which may be for an indefinite period; the potential consequences of a violation of the Notice; and the process for appealing the issuance of the Notice. The scope and duration of the restriction imposed must be proportional to the underlying misconduct. In appropriate circumstances, with respect to conduct on University property, a Notice also may prohibit a person from contacting or being within a certain distance from a person affiliated with the University.

(5) Appeals

- (a) A non-affiliated person to whom a Notice has been issued may appeal the decision to the University official who issued the Notice.
- (b) A non-affiliated person must submit the appeal in writing. The written appeal must be received by the University official who issued the Notice within twenty (20) calendar days of the date on which the Notice was provided to the non-affiliated person. A Notice mailed (or e-mailed) to a non-affiliated person shall be deemed to have been provided on the date on which it was mailed (or e-mailed). The written appeal should include the person's reason for being on University property, the person's future need to be on University property, and any other information the person wishes the University official who issued the Notice to consider.
- (c) Upon receipt of a written appeal, the University official who issued the Notice will consult as needed with other University officials to verify the non-affiliated person's need for access to University property, to gather additional information or advice, or to review the impact that granting the appeal may have on persons affiliated with the University.
- (d) Within twenty (20) calendar days of the receipt of an appeal submitted in accordance with this Chapter, the University official who issued the Notice will sustain, rescind or modify the Notice in a written decision that will be mailed to the address provided by the non-affiliated person. The decision of the University official who issued the Notice is final and not appealable within the University.
- (e) The restrictions set forth in the Notice will remain in effect while an appeal of the Notice is pending.
- (f) Other University rules, policies and procedures, rather than this Section .05(5), shall govern appeals filed by University students or employees.
- (6) The University employee who issued a Notice may rescind or modify the Notice at any time. Notification of any such rescission or modification shall be provided to the person to whom the Notice was issued.
- (7) The issuance of a Notice for conduct relating to free expression activities shall be consistent with Chapter 1720-01-12 (Use of University Property by Non-Affiliated Persons for Free Expression Activities).
- (8) Failure to comply with a Notice may result in issuance of a citation or an arrest for trespassing pursuant to applicable state criminal trespass statutes or local ordinances. Nothing in this Section .05 shall limit or be construed to limit the exercise of the statutory authority of sworn law enforcement officers of a campus police department to arrest in accordance with the laws of this state or local ordinances. Nor shall anything in this Section .05 limit or be construed to limit the authority of sworn law enforcement officers of a campus police department to issue an oral request instructing a person to leave and/or not enter all or part of University property.

- (9) Nothing in this Section .05 shall limit or be construed to limit the ability of a University official to issue a lawful directive to an employee whom he/she supervises not to enter certain parts of University property.
